New Principal Named at THINC College & Career Academy

LaGrange, Ga., – June 09, 2022 – Mrs. Jennifer Pike is the new principal of THINC College & Career Academy. Jennifer competed against four very strong candidates during interviews in a two-round process on Tuesday, May 10th and Tuesday, May 17th 2022.

Four candidates were interviewed and through collaboration and thorough discussion of each candidate, Mrs. Pike was the sole finalist for the position. This recommendation was presented to the THINC Board on Tuesday, May 24, 2022 and received full Board approval.

Jennifer has served the Troup County School System from 1999 to the present. She has performed such duties as a Teacher/Athletic Coach/Advisor at Callaway High School, the Director of Junior University Summer Program, and an Assistant Principal at Gardner Newman Middle, LaGrange High and most recently, THINC College & Career Academy. Mrs. Pike has demonstrated passion and excellence in each role that she has filled.

Her position was also approved by the Troup County Board of Education on June 6, 2022. Jennifer Pike will begin her new role as principal on July 1, 2022.
