Learning Letters can be so much fun! Children learn through play, exploration, reading, and observation. Learning the alphabet doesn't have to mean memorizing flashcards or endless workbook pages. There are many fun and hands-on ways for children to learn their letters. Here are a few ideas to help keep learning fun.

1. Read! - Books are a great way to help your children learn their letters. As you read and re-read the stories together, you can point out letters and their sounds.

2. Touch and Learn - Many kids learn through touch and experience. Playdough Letters Write Letters in Shaving Cream.

3. Alphabet Art - Rainbow Writing - Have your child practice writing the letters using every color of the rainbow. Use alphabet stamps or stickers to spell their names.
